

Washington State Genealogical Society recognizes

Gordon Freeman

of Richland, Washington

for exceptional and consistent support of the goals and operation of the Tri-City Genealogical Society

Gordon Freeman is recognized for his outstanding support. He has supported the Tri-City Genealogical Society with consistent, committed and dependable service. He has served two terms as Society Treasurer with great attention to detail. He also served as Conference Committee Treasurer for the 2011 Washington State Genealogical Society Conference hosted by the Tri-City Genealogical Society held in Richland. He did an outstanding job of keeping accurate records for the Conference.

Gordon has Washington State family heritage giving him a special interest in the state. He has supported the Tri-City Genealogical Society in many local projects and presentations.

Given this 29th day of June in the year 2013, at the annual meeting of the Washington State Genealogical Society at Yakima, Washington.

Mikal A. McKinnon
President
Washington State Genealogical Society

