

Washington State Genealogical Society
recognizes

Margie Beldin

of Richland, Washington

for exceptional and consistent support of the goals and operation of the Tri-City Genealogical Society

Margie Beldin has been selected by the Tri-City Genealogical Society (TCGS) as their recipient of the WSGS Outstanding Volunteer Award. She was selected for her dedicated, enthusiastic efforts to educate members of her local Society.

Ms. Beldin has distinguished herself in untiring support of the TCGS as its Education Chair for many years. In that position, Ms. Beldin has made many classes on a wide variety of subjects available to the membership. Ms. Beldin has not only coordinated setting up classes and programs, she has taught numerous classes herself, as she actively increases her knowledge and capability through attendance at genealogical conferences and classes outside the TCGS. She is always willing to share the knowledge that she gets from these events.

Ms. Beldin is a valued and hard-working member of the TCGS, and richly deserves this recognition.

Given this 27th day of June in the year 2015, at the annual meeting of the Washington State Genealogical Society at Ellensburg, Washington.

A handwritten signature in blue ink that reads "Mikal A. McKinnon". The signature is fluid and cursive.

Mikal A. McKinnon
President
Washington State Genealogical Society

