

Arthur Evett and Nettie Greer Family

The Arthur and Nettie Evett family were among the early settlers living in the town of Hanford Washington during the 1920 census.

This genealogical report was prepared by a non-family member, Steven Roblyer. It consists of Arthur's parents, William Harrison Evett and Amanda Tucker and Nettie's parents Joshua Greer and Mary Margaret Clark. Also included are their six children Lloyd, Embeson, Joshua Harold, William Audley, Leonard Ormas, Leona Lou and Delor.

Additional information includes two family histories, and the unique history of the towns of Hanford and White Bluffs, which were vacated by the government in the 1940's.
