After many years of tireless work Ray Baalman has resigned as the TCGS Librarian. His behind the scenes efforts have been instrumental in acquiring new resources and maintaining the assets that are the TCGS Library. On behalf of the whole society I wish to thank Ray for all his work.

At this time I wish to announce Ray's replacement. Sandra Floberg has agreed to take the position as TCGS Librarian. Thank you Sandra for taking this position.

With the library belonging to each and everyone of us, think of helping out Sandra in this endeavor. Please contact her to volunteer to assistance if even for a couple of hours a month.

Richland Family History Center Classes -

FAMILY HISTORY CLASSES will resume in September.

However Remember: EVERYTHING IS NOT ON THE INTERNET: The following are examples of some of the recent additions to the TCGS's collection of more than 3,000 genealogical books at the Richland Family History Center:

Early Carteret County North Carolina Marriages 1868-1913. Sharyn Guthrie. 1990. Includes groom and bride surname index. The marriage bond was the prominent marriage record from 1741 to 1868. It was a record showing the intent of a couple to be married, but it doesn't prove that they were ever married. The Quaker marriages are not filed with these records, nor are the records of the Catholic Church as these were made with banns. Listed with the bride and groom's name is the name of their bondsman or security. The sum of the bond was fifty pounds and in 1778 it was changed to five hundred pounds, and in the nineteenth century it became one thousand dollars. Bk33.926

History of Franklin County, Pennsylvania. Containing a history of the county, its townships, towns, villages, schools, churches, industries, etc.; portraits of early settlers and prominent men; biographies; history of Pennsylvania, statistical and miscellaneous matter, etc., etc. Warner Beers & Co., 1887. Bk38.532

Summer Soldiers: A Survey and Index of Revolutionary War Courts-Martial. James C. Neagles. Summer Soldiers is the story of a diverse group of some 3,315 men who could not withstand the hardships and pressures of what seemed like a hopeless enterprise, and ultimately found themselves before a military court-martial. Ancestry Inc. 1986. Bk56.244

A genealogist's guide to discovering your Scottish ancestors : how to find and record your unique heritage. Jonas, Linda and Paul Milner. This book includes essential things to begin Scottish research and focuses on the major records. It also tells you what type of each record, why each was created and why it is important. You will find out who originally kept the record and who holds the original or a copy now. The record also includes call number, Web site address, or other identifying information and shows you how to use it. Includes index. Betterway Books, c2002. Bk65.808

McHenry County Illinois Cemeteries. Volume 1: Northwest Townships, including Alden, Chemung, Dunham, Greenwood, Hartland, and Hebron. Obenchain, Elaine. 1990. Bk13.918

Visit the Richland Family History Center and see what you might find about your ancestors!
Open 9:00 A.M. to 5:00 P.M. Monday, Friday, and Saturday; 9:00 A.M. to 9:00 P.M. Tuesday-Thursday.

FGS Conference 2014

Gather with the nation's genealogists in historic San Antonio, Texas, for the Federation of Genealogical Societies 2014
Conference, Gone to Texas!

Join us August 27-30, 2014, as together we experience four days of genealogical learning, networking, and discovery, deep in the heart of Texas. Our local co-hosts for 2014 are the Texas State Genealogical Society and the San Antonio Genealogical and Historical Society. Together we will continue our tradition of providing exceptional educational opportunities for genealogists from across the nation and beyond.
